Teaching Content and Materials

- Lesson 8-13 of Book 4 will be covered at this semester.
- Additional materials may add if necessary.

Teaching purpose

The goal of this semester for fourth grade class is to continually focus on improving all students' ability of Chinese in listening, speaking, reading and writing.

- Let students to learn new words for each lesson. Students should be able to read, write and know what each new word means, and use the new words to make phrases and sentences. Some new words may let students to learn by themselves with the dictionary.
- Students should be able to read and understand the content of each text, try to use Chinese to tell the stories about the text in the class.
- Ask questions related to the text and the reading material in the textbook. I will encourage students to answer in Chinese.
- An exercise paper will be passed out each week that includes homework and new words practice. Student should finish the homework and bring it back next class.
- Follow the instructions by the teacher, and do Exercise Book A or B.
- A quiz will be given each week at beginning the class. It will help students review what they have learned in the class.
- Two tests (Mid-term and Final) will be taken during this semester. Final exam will test all Chinese knowledge and skill what they have learned in this semester.
- Get feedback from students and parents to improve teaching efficiency.
- Review words from book 2 & 3.

Teaching methods

- Read the text to students, ask questions, and teach new words and phrases. Translate Chinese to English if needed to help students understand the Chinese language for students. Do exercises in class, which will include dialogue, reading aloud, making sentences and dictations.
