

President's Note – Shawn Wei

Season's Greetings

Holiday season is coming. On behalf of CCEA Board of Directors, I would like to pass our best wishes to you and your family members with health and wealth, and thank you all for your participation and support in CCEA activities in this year.

This newsletter is prepared as a means to update you the past and upcoming events organized or participated by CCEA.

Upcoming Events:

⇒ CCEA/CCCS Chinese New Year Celebration (Saturday, 1/30/2010)

The CCEA and Chang Cheng Chinese School (CCCS) will jointly celebrate the Year of the Tiger on Saturday Jan. 30, 2010 in the CCCS multi-purpose room at Will C. Wood Middle School. All CCEA and CCCS members and their families and friends are invited to join us in or perform at the event. The Board has begun to develop a stage performance program. Sponsorship to the event is also sought. If you would like to perform at or sponsor the event, please contact any CCEA/CCCS board member. The event details will be released shortly.

⇒ CCEA Board Director Election (1/30/10)

A new election committee will be chaired by Mr. Ke Zhou to hold the 2010 CCEA election, including CCEA President and several Board members. An online nomination and election will be conducted in December 2009 and January 2010 and the election result will be announced at the New Year event on Saturday Jan. 30, 2010.

⇒ RMHC/API Achiever Scholarship Program (November 2009)

The CCEA Foundation (CCEAF), as a co-sponsor since 2004, is entitled to select several award recipients annually. The CCEAF's Scholarship Committee, chaired by Ms. Jane Zhang, will begin to review in November 2009 the applications submitted by high school seniors affiliated with CCEA or CCCS. Please see the following link for the application process: 2010 RMHC CCEAF.pdf. Please note the due date of the application is on Dec 11th, 2009. contact Ms. Jane Zhang at: jane_zhang@dot.ca.gov for more information.

⇒ Sacramento Chinese New Year Celebration Event (Saturday, 2/6/10):

The 2010 Chinese New Year festival celebrating the Year of the Tiger will be held in the University Union building at California State University, Sacramento. The event is organized by the Chinese New Year Cultural Association and co-sponsored by CCEA and CCCS. The event starts at 11:00 AM and ends at 11:00 PM, with a general admission cost of $6, or $2 for children of 12 years old or younger. Your voluntary support and generous donation will be sincerely appreciated.

Past Events:

⇒ Spring & Fall Picnics (4/26/09 and 10/18/09)

Together with CCCS, CCEA organized the Spring picnic in Elk Grove Regional Park and the Fall picnic in William Land Park as traditional biannual events, for CCEA/CCCS members and their families and friends. The BBQ picnics were sponsored by CCEA and supported by all participating families while the families and children activities were sponsored and organized by CCCS. Over hundred people participated in each event.

⇒ CCCS Summer Camping (7/31/09 – 8/2/09)

Organized and invited by CCCS, CCEA members and families participated in the annual summer camping event at the Emigrant Group Campground in Tahoe National Forest.

⇒ China National Day Celebration (10/3/08)

Along with many other local organizations, CCEA co-sponsored in organizing the 60th anniversary of the China National Day celebration banquet, organized by the China National Day Foundation (chaired by Tony Shen, a CCEA member). CCEA is a seed member of the Committee and represented by Mr. Dongmin Luo throughout the event planning process. A total of more than 160 CCEA/CCCS members and their families participated in the event.
